

Insworld Institute is a secondary school in Singapore teaching local and international students a British curriculum, adapted to suit the needs of the international learner.

We work only with small class sizes (4-12 students), allowing us to focus the needs of each individual learner.

Teacher, Mathematics

Responsibilities :

- Teach all levels from Lower Secondary up to and including A-Level.
 - i) EITP (Lower Secondary) – Mathematics
 - ii) IGCSE – Mathematics
 - iii) International A-Level – Mathematics
- Draw up schemes of work and lesson plans
- Set and mark tests and internal examinations
- Maintain attendance and achievement records
- Provide regular reports on students' performance and attend meetings to review performance

Secondary Role :

- Help maintain high levels of student discipline.
- Take an active interest in the welfare of students at the School
- Take an active part in extra-curricular activities.

Qualifications

Essential

- Honours degree or equivalent in Mathematics

Desirable

- At least three years of teaching Mathematics to secondary school students
- Experience of working with mixed ability groups
- Experience of teaching Mathematics to students whose first language is not English
- Experience of working with Pearson Edexcel IGCSE and IAL specifications

To apply, you are welcome to send a detailed resume with recent photo to:

Insworld Google Form Link:

<https://goo.gl/forms/AIS0OVPulhkM1mix2>