

Insworld Institute is a secondary school in Singapore teaching local and international students a British curriculum, adapted to suit the needs of the international learner.

We work only with small class sizes (4-12 students), allowing us to focus the needs of each individual learner.

ECONOMICS TEACHER

Responsibilities :

Duties & Responsibilities

Primary Role

- Teach Economics at IGCSE (O-Level) and International A-Level
- Maintain attendance and achievement records
- Provide regular reports on student performance
- Attend meetings to review performance

Additional Responsibilities

- Help maintain high levels of student discipline
- Implement strategies to ensure students achieve the best possible examination results
- Take an active interest in the welfare of students at the school
- Take an active role in extra-curricular activities
- Be available to give extra tuition to students who require this assistance
- Undertake any other duties as directed

Qualifications

Essential

- Honours degree or equivalent in Economics or a related discipline
- Experience of teaching international students using English as the medium of instruction

Preferred

- Experience of teaching Pearson Edexcel Economics programmes at IGCSE and International A-Level

Interested applicants kindly send your resume to hrm@insworld.edu.sg.

(We thank you for your application and regret that only shortlisted candidates will be notified)